

THE DICKSON POON
SCHOOL OF LAW

KING'S College
LONDON

Master of Laws LLM

Our LLM course is a respected academic qualification recognised throughout the world and across key legal disciplines. It focuses on our particular areas of expertise and offers a choice of nine specialist pathways or a general LLM qualification. We place particular emphasis on innovative and problem-solving teaching methods as well as comparative and international outlook.

KEY BENEFITS

- Exceptional teaching reputation; unique, sought-after expertise with strong links to research coupled with connections with the wider London legal community.
- Unrivalled location in the heart of legal London; based in the magnificent Somerset House East Wing on the Strand and minutes from the Royal Courts of Justice, the Inns of Court and offices of major global law firms.

KEY FACTS

Full-time: 1 year

Part-time: 2 years

PATHWAYS

You will choose to specialise in one of nine different pathways or choose your own combination of modules for a 'General LLM'. The specialist pathways currently comprise:

- Competition Law
- European Law
- Intellectual Property & Information Law
- International Business Law
- International Financial Law
- International Dispute Resolution
- International Tax Law
- Law & Technology
- Transnational Law

Top 20
global law school*

More online

For further details on the course and The Dickson Poon School of Law scan the QR code or visit:

kcl.ac.uk/law

@KGL_Law

in /the-dickson-poon-school-of-law

*QS World University Rankings
for Law & Legal Studies 2023